ICSC FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES
ALBERT SUSSMAN INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY SUPPORT AWARD RECIPIENT

Las Vegas, May 23, 2011, – Presented by the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) Foundation, The Albert Sussman International Community Support Award recipient for 2011 is Developers Diversified Realty's Buena Park Downtown Shopping Center of Buena Park, Calif. for their "Giving Children Hope" campaign.

The Albert Sussman International Community Support Award is given to the shopping center or shopping center company that has demonstrated the very best in community service over the past year. The award was presented as part of the VIVA Best-of-the-Best Award at RECon, the largest retail real estate convention in the world, in Las Vegas, Nevada, on May 23, 2011.

Developers Diversified Realty, along with Buena Park Downtown and AMP Radio, partnered with "Giving Children Hope," to collect enough non-perishable food to feed 1,047 local children through its "We've Got Your Back" weekend nutrition program. Buena Park Downtown joined forces with local radio station AMP to create and host a free concert by popular teen idol, Jason Derülo, asking for food donations as admission to the concert. In total, concert goers donated 3,835 non-perishable food items or 8,000 pounds of food which exceeded the original goal by 523%.

"Recognizing the vital role that shopping centers and shopping center companies play in the communities they serve, the ICSC Foundation created this prestigious award to pay homage to the center or company that truly distinguished itself in the area of community service this past year," said Kieran P. Quinn, ICSC Foundation chairman and managing Partner, Guggenheim Partners.
