ICSC FOUNDATION AWARDS MARY LOU FIALA FELLOWSHIP

LAS VEGAS, May 23, 2011, – Devony Jackson of Cleveland, Ohio is the honored recipient of the Mary Lou Fiala Fellowship for 2011, awarded by the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) Foundation. The award was presented on May 23, 2011 in Las Vegas during ICSC’s RECon, the global retail real estate convention.

Jackson will devote significant efforts over her one-year fellowship to pursue a project designed to benefit and promote the retail real estate industry. The fellowship provides a one-year mentorship with an industry leader, an all-expense-paid course of study at the John T. Riordan School of Professional Development, a special invitation to attend RECon, and the honor of participating in a number of speaking engagements at industry events during the award year.

Launched in early 2010 the Mary Lou Fiala Fellowship annually recognizes an outstanding professional under the age of 30 who demonstrates a commitment to retail real estate, and has the potential to make a lasting contribution to the industry. The fellowship was made possible by a gift from Regency Centers to the ICSC Foundation in honor of Mary Lou Fiala. Ms. Fiala served as president and COO of Regency Centers Corporation and is a renowned industry expert. At the heart of the program is an appreciation of Ms. Fiala’s qualities and values.

“The ICSC Foundation shares Mary Lou’s belief that active participation and mentorship can be invaluable in adding a unique perspective to the next generation of industry leaders,” said Valerie J. Cammiso, executive director of the ICSC Foundation. “The Foundation, along with Mary Lou and Regency Centers would like to congratulate Devony on receiving this prestigious fellowship and we look forward to her efforts in advancing the industry,” Cammiso added.

Having a successful nine year track record in the retail real estate industry, Jackson, a retail releasing associate for Forest City Enterprises, is driven to leave a lasting impact on the retail real estate industry through hard work and motivation. In her current position with Forest City Enterprises she is responsible for all aspects of leasing retail and restaurant space. She is a dedicated advocate for regional retail chains, acknowledging the future of the industry depends on their success. During her fellowship Jackson will initiate a more advanced extension of her current blog to establish an online networking community for regional retail chain store representative to connect in one convenient location. Jackson will use her passion to take her proposed plan from a concept to reality.
