Discover just how much ICSC membership can help your business grow.
The International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) is the global trade association of the retail real estate industry. Our education, advocacy, research and networking initiatives promote innovation and partnership, explore emerging markets and advance the interests of the shopping center industry.

Founded in 1957, ICSC is a community of over 70,000 members who believe this association is critical to their success and is a trusted ally in their daily business ventures.

ICSC offers valuable programs and services to its membership. Discover just how much we can help your business grow by being a member.
From the first ideas exchanged between our founders almost 60 years ago to the innovative courses offered through the University of Shopping Centers, learning has defined ICSC. The vigorous exchange of ideas and expertise that permeate our work has created a culture of learning that advances careers, and the industry for the benefit of all.

Expanding the educational offerings locally, regionally, nationally and globally is an ongoing priority for the association. ICSC delivers more targeted educational programs for our retail real estate members across a full range of specialties. Learn and grow more.

The benefits of having industry experts teaching the classes allows the students to learn from real life examples. The intense course load and ability to speak with people who have been in your business for years allows you to leave at the end of the course with both the knowledge and the confidence to excel in your chosen field.

The mission of ICSC’s Office of Global Public Policy (GPP) is to actively shape global public policy and influence the federal, state (U.S.), provincial (Canada), local and European Union’s legislative, regulatory and political processes for the benefit of our members.

As regulatory demands and new developments influence the industry globally, particularly in areas of tax, the environment, the workforce and growth management, ICSC will use its advocacy expertise on behalf of its members to ensure continued robust growth of the retail real estate industry.

In the U.S. the ICSC PAC is the only federally-registered political action campaign that represents the shopping center industry and its interests. Through the generous backing of ICSC members, ICSC PAC provides financial contributions to federal candidates who understand and support our issues.

“While this election season has never seemed more divisive, it has never been more important to our future. I challenge ICSC members to help us ensure that policies reflect the realities and necessities of our business. Only by working together can we unify the voice of the shopping center industry; the bottom line - you can either be at the table, or on the menu.”

As an ICSC member, you will benefit directly from a wide range of information designed to broaden your knowledge and keep you informed about industry trends and market conditions. ICSC’s research team produces its flagship global publication Retail Property Insights and numerous other industry studies. One of the department’s core missions is to collect, interpret and disseminate industry data, which is made available through its QuickStats system.

In addition, the Albert Sussman e-Library enables you to search thousands of member-only ICSC and non-ICSC articles, magazines, journals, company reports, country economic and financial reviews and more. Other member resources include the Global Shopping Center Directory, Country Fact Sheets (overviews of the industry), and Economic Impact Studies for each U.S. state and Canadian province. The department hosts research conferences and has an ever-growing global research network.

"ICSC and its research function have played a huge role in my professional career; from the early days of research publications to today’s online resources when conducting research on new trends. Combined with the educational, speaking and networking opportunities it affords through its specialist interest groups and conferences around the world, it has opened opportunities for new business and to connect with other like-minded souls and make some great friends."

NETWORKING

Take advantage of unlimited opportunities to build your professional network, promote your organization and close deals at hundreds of meetings and conferences hosted by ICSC each year.

Events such as RECon, the association’s largest conventions held globally, provide ideal venues to meet key industry players, make face-to-face business connections, launch new products and services and learn about the latest industry trends. ICSC offers other powerful tools to increase your visibility and develop your business networks, including its membership directory of ICSC members worldwide, as well as high profile awards programs that recognize outstanding achievements and celebrate excellence in retail real estate.

At every stage of your career, you can count on strong support from the ICSC community and make valuable contributions to it as well.

“ICSC and the programs and networking opportunities it provides have been instrumental in my career in retail real estate. When I was a graduate student, the ICSC local programs and Next Generation events really kick started my interest in retail real estate and in a short period of time introduced me to the ‘hot topics’ and leaders in our industry.”
