Steven B. Greenberg is founder and president of The Greenberg Group, Inc., a real estate advisory firm devoted exclusively to representing leading retailers. Mr. Greenberg established the firm in 1987. On behalf of its clients, The Greenberg Group performs strategic planning, market research, analytical studies, site selection and deal negotiation throughout the U.S. The firm represents premier retailers including Crocs, Faconnable, Lalique, Kellwood Industries, Vince, Lumber Liquidators, Lacoste, Grom, and Dover Saddlery. It also has represented Gucci, Puma, Barnes & Noble, Eddie Bauer, and White House/Black Market, among others. With more than 20 years as a leader in retail tenant representation, The Greenberg Group places unique emphasis on research and analysis. The firm's national research program is based on the implementation of highly sophisticated demographic technologies and analytical research studies. The Greenberg Group has long-established relationships with nearly every shopping center company throughout North America. The firm deals with developers and leasing agents and once a site is approved, negotiates the best possible transaction on behalf of its clients.

Mr. Greenberg is respected as one of the pre-eminent industry experts and is often quoted in The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Fortune, Newsday, The New York Post and Women's Wear Daily. For more than 15 years, he has taught a class at ICSC University and now also lectures as part of ICSC's Executive Learning Series on Understanding the Retailer's Site Selection Criteria. Mr. Greenberg's expertise in retail tenant representation was first established during his 10 years as the founder and operator of a retail chain. During this time, he saw firsthand a lack of skilled advisors available to counsel retailers on expansion opportunities. This experience eventually led Mr.

Greenberg to develop his niche and form The Greenberg Group, a company dedicated solely to the representation of leading retailers in real estate transactions.
