Trail

Location at McDowell Sonoran Preserve

Difficulty: Moderate

The basic hike will be Desert Park Trail to Windgate Pass Trail to Gateway Loop Trail back to the trailhead. That hike is about 5.5 miles. For the more adventuresome, there are two options: split off from the main group at DP1 and do an unmarked 1 mile loop trail which switches back to the Windgate Pass Trail at TT17 and then where the Gateway Loop Trail splits (WP1), take the south route over the Gateway Saddle back to the trailhead. That hike is 7.5 miles and the added loops are shown in red on the Hiking Trails Options attachment. If the first option is eliminated, it is 6.5 miles.

Suggestions for Hikers

Wear appropriate hiking shoes. The path can be rocky at times. If you are running the trail make sure your footing is stable on the gravel/rocky parts. Wear appropriate clothing. It may be cool in Phoenix that day if it is windy. The trail is in a national park so cactus/brush may not be cut back well. The views are really beautiful so feel free to bring a camera or cell phone with a camera. If you decide to drive your own personal vehicle in lieu of using the bus, a vehicle parking fee may apply.
